Terms and Conditions

Terms Terms are, Net thirty (30) days, with approval of credit. Prior to approved credit, a 50% deposit with the final payment at Integrated Parts Distributors corporate office before shipping. (Under certain situations C.O.D. payment for the remaining balances may be approved at the discretion of Integrated Parts Distributors' management). Remit payments to Integrated Parts Distributors, 1011 Timothy Drive, San Jose, CA 95133.

Credit If your account goes beyond your assigned credit, no merchandise will be shipped until all past due balances are paid. Under no circumstances will merchandise be shipped if your account has gone beyond forty-five (45) days without payment. In order to qualify for credit all requested information must be complete on the dealer Application and Credit Application. There are no exceptions. Your bank and account number along with five trade references are required. You must also sign and date all forms. Credit will not be considered unless all these actions are accomplished.

Deductions Under no circumstances will deductions be allowed from invoices without prior authorization from Integrated Parts Distributors.

Partial Shipments Upon Customer request, partial shipments may be made. The initial portion of the order shipped will be invoiced and payment due for that portion in accordance with Integrated Parts Distributors' terms. Balance of order will be shipped when available. Customers are responsible for all special handling charges as it pertains to partial shipments.

Shipping Charges Integrated Parts Distributors ships all products FOB Factory. The customer is responsible for all freight costs.

Ship Date Products will be shipped as close as possible to the required date listed on customer's purchase order. Integrated Parts Distributors will not be held liable for any damages and/or any other claims the customer may claim were caused by the late delivery.

Lead Times lead times will be quoted upon request. Integrated Parts Distributors will use its best efforts to comply with the lead-time requested. Integrated Parts Distributors will not be held liable for any damages and/or claims the customer may claim were caused by the late delivery.

Returns and Credits Written pre-approval must be given by Integrated Parts Distributors for exchange or credit of merchandise before return shipment is made. No merchandise will be accepted without this approval. All Return Authorization (RA) numbers must accompany merchandise returned for credit or exchange. Integrated Parts Distributors must be notified of returns, quality problems, or shortages within fifteen (15) days of receipt of merchandise. All merchandise returned is shipped freight prepaid. Integrated Parts Distributors will not accept freight charges.

Cancellation and Order Changes All changes to orders must be submitted in writing. Cancellations and returns are subject to a restocking fee for returned products in 25%. If cancellation notice is received after stock is pulled but before shipment, a 20% restocking fee will apply. All non-stock items, custom, and special orders including but not limited to specially painted items, cannot be cancelled nor returned for credit.

Transit Damage All merchandise is packed in an approved manner. Inspect all merchandise immediately upon receipt. Do not unpack any carton that is or appears to be damaged. Call the carrier immediately for inspection. Notification for concealed damages must be made in writing directly to the freight company making the delivery of the merchandise. This must be done within the time period allowed by the freight carrier for making these claims. These claims are made to the freight carrier and are not to be made to Integrated Parts Distributors. Ownership (title) of all merchandise shipped pass to the buyer when Integrated Parts Distributors or its vendors deliver the merchandise to the carrier.

Damage Claims In the event damage or loss occurs, call your freight company to file a claim. Integrated Parts Distributors does not process damage claims.

Redelivery of Freight All costs for redelivery/redirection of freight are the responsibility of the buyer when the redelivery/redirection of the merchandise is required because the customer is unable to accept delivery and no advance notification is provided. In the event that the customer is aware of the inability to accept product in advance and that the customer has provided written notification of this fact; the customer shall be responsible for all the freight, rehandling, and warehousing, in addition to a 10% surcharge, will be billed to the customer. Written notification of this event must be given to Integrated Parts Distributors at least two weeks in advance of the scheduled ship date.

Product Design Integrated Parts Distributors reserves the right to make changes in design and construction and discontinue any product without prior notice. All catalog dimensions shown are to be approximate.

Special Orders A one hundred percent (100%) deposit must be received in advance for all special orders. All special orders must be shipped within thirty (30) days from the day you are informed by the company to pick up or are ready to ship such special orders. Any special ordered items not picked up or shipped within such thirty (30) day period shall be subject to a restocking charge of not less than fifteen (15%) percent and not more than the cost of the special ordered items plus any applicable handling charges.

Price All list prices as stated in our catalogues are subject to change without notification. All prices are in US dollars.
